INVENTORY OF CO-OPERATION AGREEMENTS

LIST OF AGENCY-TO-AGENCY MEMORANDA OF UNDERSTANDING (MoUs)

This document contains the list of MoUs/interagency agreements on co-operation found by the OECD Secretariat. When available, links to online texts have been added to the title of the MOU (last accessed 26 July 2016).

The full inventory, the OECD Recommendation and accompanying documents can be found online at www.oecd.org/competition/inventory-competition-agreements.htm.

An increasing number of competition authorities enter into agency-to-agency memoranda of understanding, or MoUs, to strengthen their relationship with their counterparts. Since 2000, the number of MoUs has been increasing. To the knowledge of the Secretariat, at the end of April 2016 there are at least 142 MoUs where one of the signatories is a competition authority of an OECD Member, Associate or Participant to the OECD Competition Committee, or the European Commission. MoUs are not legally binding, and are, compared to government-to-government co-operation agreements, flexible and easier to conclude or amend because their negotiation does not require the authorisation of legislative bodies or involvement of other governmental bodies, such as foreign ministries. MoUs may be concluded at the initiative of competition authorities based on their specific needs.

Most MoUs are modelled on inter-governmental co-operation agreements and have a similar structure, albeit with less detailed and formal provisions. Some MoUs contain all basic elements of comprehensive co-operation agreements, such as notifications, enforcement co-operation, co-ordination, negative and positive comity. Others focus more on establishing a basic framework to ensure a dialogue between the two competition authorities; for example, they have provisions on transparency, communication and/or technical co-operation, like conducting or participating in conferences, seminars, workshops or training courses, exchange of personnel or study trips, providing assistance in advocacy activities. Often MoUs designate a contact point of each party for the purpose of effective communication. Some MoUs are second generation agreements enabling competition authorities to exchange confidential information under certain circumstances, without the need to seek prior consent from the source of the information.
